Validation of the agreement between the provincial government and city of Edmonton relative to the use by the city of the property certificates, instead of cash, for unemployment relief expenditures, is included in the bill "respecting property certificates," it was revealed on Monday when printed copies of the bill were circulated to members.

Premier Blisters Usurers

Subjecting interest racketeers to severe criticism and declaring that in the new social order this type and class of person must ultimately be completed eliminated, Premier William Aberhart, in addressing a mass meeting at the Arena on Sunday evening called upon the honest, respectable man to co-operate in removing the "money changers from the field of co-operating Christianity."

Describing the profiteering exploitation of the devastated, distressed residents as "parasites," the Premier declared that the economic era now dawning the parasite germ must be destroyed.

An audience in excess of 6,000 crowded the arena to hear the Premier deliver his address. The meeting sponsored by the Social Credit League, was in the nature of an anniversary service, to commemorate the first anniversary of the Aberhart cabinet taking office, on Sept. 2, 1935.

After applause greeted the Premier, as he directed his heaviest fire against the interest racketeers that reached a tremendous crescendo and climax as he predicted the ultimate elimination of the interest parasite from the new economic order.

Deprecating derogatory remarks buried at him by opponents, the Premier assured his hearers that basic dividends would be paid and extended over the property certificate registration for receipt of the dividends.

To date, he pointed out, 19,575 registered in this city, an increase of 5,844 over the first Social Credit votes at the provincial general election of Aug. 22, 1935. At the by-election of June 22 of this year a total of 19,946 votes

BANDITS KILL CANADIAN IN ETHIOPIAN WILDS

Tom Devers, Toronto Missionary, Ambushed by Savage Tribesman

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 31.—Word reached Addis Ababa today of the slaying of two missionaries attached to the Sudan Interior mission, one of them a Canadian, namely Tom L. Devers. The other was Clifford Mitchell of New Zealand.

A British servant named Plancier Blaise who arrived at Addis Ababa and the pair were waylaid and murdered by bandits at Yerga Alem in southern Ethiopia early last May. The bandits belonged to the Galla tribe. The missionaries were attempting to escape to the capital, Blaise said he discovered their mutilated bodies near Koshidam. A fellow missionary named Smith escaped over the border into Kenya.

Action At Last!

An Editorial

Premier Aberhart deserves credit for his action in providing protection to the private debtors of Alberta. Citizens, through no fault of their own, have faced during the past six years of depression loss of income of more than half that previously received.

In 1930 when the full force of the depression was felt, the cry for help was raised by the people of Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

What was the answer of the "emergency" prime minister, Right Honorable R. B. Bennett to that cry for help?

Immediate action was taken to place the entire resources of the State back of the financial institutions. Laws were changed so as to cut salaries, pensions, break and reduce wage contracts, thousands were thrown out of employment, millions were reduced to want and distress. Many were forced to accept relief!

Mr. Bennett's proud boast thereafter was, "not a single bank, insurance, loan or mortgage corporation had failed" and that "Canadians were not wretched, every dollar borrowed would be paid according to the terms and letter of the contract."

Comforting words for the holders of high interest-bearing securities—hundreds of millions of dollars of which were Tax Free War Bonds—but ruin, distress, and loss of hope for millions of Canadians and, for some, premature death!

Organized finance did not share in the terrible losses, but continued to maintain profits while every other class in Canada suffered to the limit of endurance.

When taxpayers ask for a reduction in exorbitant interest rates they are told, "Why, that's impossible; change money contracts will ruin your credit." Nothing is further from the truth.

Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand and United States changed money contracts in one form or another and in each case, organized finance cried blue ruin.

Organized finance in Canada has failed even to co-operate with the Honorable Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, by refusing to make loans at 5% on homes and farms in Western Canada, presumably so that existing rates of 7%, 8% and 9% on outstanding loans might not be disturbed.

It is now up to the Mackenzie King government to carry out the pledge on which it received an overwhelming mandate to make the Bank of Canada function in the "public interest," and "supply currency and credit in terms of public need." Cheap money, actually available, is the crying need to reconstruct and build a new and greater Canadian prosperity.

U.S. WARSHIP IS BOMBED BY REBEL PLANE

Six Bombs Dropped Near Destroyer Kane But Marksmanship Poor

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The U.S. destroyer Kane with high explosive bombs dropped from an unidentified airplane off the Spanish coast, the United States government today called on both the Madrid regime and the rebels to prevent another such incident.

Acting on orders telephoned by President Roosevelt from the mid-west, Secretary of State Hull announced that the Spanish government and General Francisco Franco, rebel chieftain, were being asked to instruct their forces to refrain from attacking the strongest terms to avoid a repetition.

The news that the Kane had been the target of six bombs and had answered with nine rounds from its anti-aircraft gun broke the Sunday calm of the state department yesterday.

Officials were relieved to learn that none of the bombs hit the ship. The airplane, believed to be a rebel, escaped after dropping the bombs. The case was labelled one of "mistaken identity."

BURGOS, Spain, Aug. 31.—Fascist rebel officers laid new plans today to bomb Madrid airports as well.

CALLANDER, Ont. Aug. 31.—Every one of the 40 film workers here from Hollywood agrees with Otis Skinner the Dionne quintuplets are the best of movie actors.

The only trouble they have is that the famous youngsters positively will not follow scripts.

In fact, it has reached the stage where the studio's Century Pictures Company is ready to tear up the script for the "quintuplets" second starring feature film, and the youngsters decide how things will run.

For example, the script set out plainly how Yvonne was to come through a doorway in the shot carrying wild flowers. The writers had decided Yvonne would

Elimination of provisions for appeal from decision of the Debt Adjustment Board is included in the amendment to the Debt Adjustment Act now before the legislature.

Heretofore, provision was made for appeal to a supreme court judge.

The act also comes into force on the day on which assent is given.

Another section of the act, Section 4, gives the Debt Adjustment Board power to appoint persons with such powers as it may deem expedient, including powers "to make compromises between creditors and debtors."

This is intended to reduce only to voluntary compromises as the board itself has no power to make compulsory compromises.

There is no provision for a cut-off date such as July 1, 1932 which was in the 1932 act and apparently refers to future dates.

In case of a breach by a resident of the board of review "due to causes beyond his control," the board may

DIVIDENDS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE FROWNED UPON

Dr. Townsend Says Only Persons Over 60 Should Be Helped

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—Dr. Francis Townsend, who proposes "revenue" pensioning of $200 a month to all United States citizens over 60, doesn't think it is good idea to distribute a "dividend" among young people as well.

4 DROWNINGS DEATH TOTEM ONE WEEK END

Four Edmontonians, William B. Clarke, 32, of 10715 93 street, Arthur Perry, 33, of 9837 84 avenue and Roy Perry, 32, of 9608 Jasper avenue, all employees of New Method Laundry, Edmonton, were drowned and two others, A. Shaddick, superintendent of the laundry and O. E. Roberts, 7235 88 avenue escaped death by drowning when the row boat in which they were rowing in Eden lake capsized Sunday afternoon.

Hubbell lake and Edmonton beach. Anatole Casaubon, 45, Swift Canadian employee dove into shallow water at Aspen beach, Gull Lake and broke his neck. He died shortly after being taken from the water.

According to reports the five men from the New Method Laundry had gone out early Sunday morning on a pleasure trip and were engaged in the sport when the boat suddenly capsized, hurling the occupants into the lake.

Sheddick and Roberts came to the surface but the other three were thrown out and went down almost immediately as neither could swim.

The bodies of the two Perry brothers were recovered shortly after Clark's body was still undiscovered early Monday.

Being from a pier into shallow water at Aspen Beach, Gull Lake, Anatole Casaubon, Swift Canadian employee, suffered a broken neck and died in a car while being rushed to Lacombe hospital after being taken from the water by two companions. The accident occurred Sunday afternoon.

Accompanied by two companions Mr. Casaubon, motorist at Aspen Beach, died shortly after being taken from the water by two companions.

HOEDE SAYS NATIONALISM RIFE IN EAST

Montreal Mayor Resigned Because of French-English Animosity

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—Disagreement on policies which he predicted would lead "straight to the second world war," Quebec Premier "Confederation" was given today the severest rebuke of his career for his reason for his sudden resignation.

STEAMER SINKS EASTERN SHIP

QUEBEC, Aug. 31.—Word filtering through the heavy fog enshrouding the St. Lawrence river today reported the death of one man and injury to three others when the lake freighter Behm, bound for Montreal, collided with the French liner Lafayette at a lonely stretch of the river.

The French liner, bound for Halifax, Aug. 31.—The 1,270-ton freighter Belemne collided with the lake freighter Behm at a lonely stretch of the river.

All aboard the stricken vessel were saved, a message from Ellis Bay wireless station on Anticosti Island reported to east coast radio here.

The big Canadian Trans-Atlantic liner Lafayette, 28,178 tons, was proceeding up the St. Lawrence from Boston for an Atlantic crossing from Quebec.

The ship was within about five miles west of the village of Belemne when the collision occurred.

WEIGHTS FIGHTING CHEERED BY HONG

U.S. WARSHIP IS BOMBED BY REBEL PLANE

Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press
AVELINO, Aug. 31.—Premier Manning, wearing a "cavalier" white night suit, could mobilize 8,000,000 men "in the course of a few hours and after a simple effort."

Speaking from this centre of recent war games to the fighting men and his people, the dictator "rejoiced" what he called "the absence of eternal peace," declared his army was sharpened by his African victory, and proclaimed:

"We must be strong! We must be strong! We must be so strong that we can face any eventualities and look directly in the eye whatever may befall us."

1. Duce stressed that Italy desired to live in peace and pledged "no lasting conquests," but declared to the project of colonization among people who were not "civilized."

He told the thousands who cheered him to the echo in Italy's municipal square, that the world was in the throes of an "irreversible" permanent race.

He did not mention the "two world civil war" in Spain between the Socialist government and the rebellious Fascist army, but after declaring Italy must "regain the idea of 'eternal' peace," he said:

"I am speaking to you of 'eternal' peace—peace of 'eternal' Italian civilization, which now and in the course of uncertain development."

Consequently, he said the "strong Italy" "watchword must be 'strength'."

The armed forces of Italy testified by foreign experts that at 1,200,000 men are more efficient than "any other army in the world," but as a consequence of the African war, "Duce declared:

ONLY SMALL PARTY
Hence, he said, the 60,000 and more men who just had ended an anti-military manoeuvre "of four years of Fascist empire" made up but "a modest and almost insignificant part of Italy's actual strength."

In the manoeuvres, the dictator said the troops were supported by 200 tanks, 400 military canoes, 100 trench mortars, 1,000 machine guns and 2,000 armoured cars.

This equipment, he added, was but a small portion of that which Italy could command.

He said that his young sons-in-law and foreign ministers, Count Galeazzo Ciano, Marshal Pietro Badoglio, conqueror of Adria, and Count Galeazzo Ciano, in command at the start of the campaign.

PARENTS OF 24
Mussolini spoke in the early evening, but just after noon the crowd began to gather in the square, stand for five or six hours waiting for the dictator.

At noon he received 300 families, with more than 1,000 children. The most enthusiastic greeting was reserved for the father and mother of his children.

WEST TO EAST MARK BROKEN BY QUEEN MARY

Mary passed but they were disappointed as she refused visibility over the horizon.

In order to regain officially the Atlantic record, Queen Mary must hold the highest knot average for three weeks.

The German liner Bremen, with a speed of 23.3 knots, captained by the German captain, was the Atlantic speed champion in 1929.

TWO ON TIE
The Queen Mary's record-breaking voyage ending last night covered a distance of 2,820 miles.

It was the second time in less than a week that the mighty engines of the Queen Mary had driven the tremendous and graceful bulk of the British liner over the Atlantic at record speed. When she crossed the Gulf of St. Lawrence, the liner was on the Atlantic coast.

Beach from Sylvan Lake to have a swim. He was warned before taking the dive that the water was extremely low, and there was danger of being hurt.

The water was so low that he was still breathing but died within a few minutes. He was given first aid by Dr. J. W. Richardson and Cuddy of Calgary.

Mr. Casheer, who was employed here at Swift Canadian plant since 1928, and leaves a wife and 14-year-old son.

The accident in which the three hungry employees met death occurred 30 minutes after the men arrived at the lake for a fishing party. The water was 25 feet deep at the spot where the boat upset, and Otto Brown was the only one of the party who could swim.

Starting out from their homes about 9:30 a.m. Sunday, the party rented boats about 1:30 p.m. After lunch, Roberts said:

"I was fishing with the bow, with Bill Clark and Roy Perry in another boat out three or four feet from the shore. We were out of sight around a bend there was quite a low blow and our boat began to list."

WIND WHIPPED WAVES
"It slipped under the bow, being whipped up by the wind, and suddenly it went over and I was thrown in. As I was going down I saw the other two of my party were out of sight around a bend there was quite a low blow and our boat began to list."

Duck Shooting Season Promises Slim Reward For Hunters In Alberta

Buff, bang, bang.
Out on the old blunderbuss, wipe off the dust, run the oil rag through the barrel, get your store of shells, uncock the waders and prepare for the big event.

You bet, the big event is here. At long last, duck hunting season north of the Clearwater and Athabasca rivers is thrown open on Tuesday and two weeks later will be open to the south of these two streams.

Already eager hunters are preparing for the trek to the happy hunting grounds and the steaks of gun fire will resound through the woods on many fronts.

But, according to expert opinion from those who have studied the situation, the man behind the gun will not enjoy the banner season he has fondly hoped for, as lowering of water levels in the north-eastern and the drying up of the rivers, sloughs and lakes has resulted in a genuine shortage of waterfowl.

THOUSANDS PERISH
Early reports indicate thousands of ducks have perished.

The largest numbers of birds on the American continent, namely, south and northwestern Saskatchewan and Alberta, have suffered most from lack of rainfall.

The situation in the north-eastern and the south-eastern provinces remains a question mark on the duck counts.

NORTH BENEFITED
Northern area, with more water than the south, has been filled from drought conditions. To what extent breeding grounds for ducks and geese contribute to the hunter's restricted access is not known.

Official survey parties are engaged in a widespread survey in the northern and southern areas.

A survey conducted by land and air last week showed that there are 60,000 ducks nesting in regions adjacent to the Great Lakes, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Large increases in border states to the south are also reported.

So here's hoping for the hunters.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Baby talk, like speech, is something you can't stand. It may be alright, but it gets the Bulletin's Inquiring Reporter's back.

Here's what they say:

DAVE NORRIS, speaker: People who massage the English language by going to bed with their "titi-bits" mugger-pun and ducky-ducky talk are a disgrace to the language.

BILL ROSS, doorman: I don't like baby talk at any time but it's worse when it's coming from a doorman. I don't like it when it's coming from a doorman.

BILL FLEET, service station attendant: Now, even in mention baby talk, gets me down. I don't like it when it's coming from a doorman.

ELLEN MCCAN, clerk: I don't like baby talk at any time but it's worse when it's coming from a doorman. I don't like it when it's coming from a doorman.

HARRY THOMPSON, shipper: In my opinion there is a place for baby talk, but it's not very far south of the city.

JOAN LINDSAY, stenographer: I would much rather hear someone talk in a simple, direct way than hear someone who is trying to be clever.

TOMMY WARRING, clerk: Nothing makes me up to a faster rate than hearing someone who is trying to be clever.

LEONARD MARTIN, bricklayer: Anyone who baby talks is not all that smart. Baby talk is a sign of a person who is not all that smart.

Police Court
Convicted on charges of theft, a 37-year-old laborer, was sentenced to three months with hard labor at the Edmonton Police Court.

M.H.O. WARNS ABOUT TYPHOID
Warning citizens against using river water particularly at points below the city sewage outlet, Dr. R. J. Jenkins, medical health officer, issued Monday that new cases of typhoid fever had been reported here, bringing the total for the past two weeks to six. The last case recorded is a 10-year-old girl who was brought to the hospital from her home a few miles west of Edmonton.

Woppor Spuds
Bumper Crop
Of Edmonton
Women shoppers who have occasionally had to grope for potatoes in the city market, will be pleased to hear that a bumper crop of woppor spuds has been reported from the city of Edmonton.

She Will Never Romp, Play Again Speed Demons on Scona Hill to be Trapped, is Latest Threat of Police

Police gave notice today that the war against traffic violators is on and they intend to clamp down on every violator of traffic regulations.

"We have tolerated with traffic violators and given them every consideration long enough, now we are going to clamp down on them," said traffic officers Friday.

"When do you intend to start?" "Immediately," came the reply.

Following a number of complaints from citizens living in the Cromdale district that motorists use the Scona hill for a speedway, a Bulletin reporter investigated.

"During a 45-minute vigil last night 110 cars recklessly drove up or down the hill. In some cases two, three and sometimes four cars came down the hill close abreast without consideration for cars going up hill. The speed of the cars was times terrific."

At about 11 p.m. on Sunday, a St. John's Ambulance first aid man, saw a car that was speeding down the hill. He was just a few feet from where the car was when it was hit by a car coming up the hill.

"I'm not trying to stop motorists from going up the hill, but I feel that the cars driving who have children in the car should be stopped. I feel that the cars driving who have children in the car should be stopped."

"We have 214 children killed in the last year, and I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars. I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars."

"I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars. I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars."

"I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars. I feel that everyone of them are endangered by these cars."

SAFWAYS CAPSULES TO SENIOR LEAGUE CROWN

TAKE FOURTH IN ROW 11-1 OVER ARROWS

Blat Lupul Off Mound To Take Easy Victory In Deciding Game

Laying the hickory with drastic effectiveness in the first four innings of the game, Safeways captured the Edmonton Senior League crown in a blow of glory Sunday afternoon on the Boyle street lot by winning their fourth straight game 11-1 over Arrow Blues in the playoff series.

The newly crowned champions of Boyle street baseball was proved their mettle in decisive fashion and ended their unimpressive attack for titular honors with a victory that fell on heads in the minds of those persons that they were the superior team.

FOUND LUPUL

Their bats found the path of Billy Lupul's curves with monumental regularity from the first inning on, and the young Arrow Blue hurler who has twiced many a brilliant game for his mates, found his Waterloo Sunday. He had to be taken out in the fourth with ten runs and nine hits charged to his credit.

The game was a dead ender in the league's career as it passed in the first inning in the seventh inning. Safeways, a flailing crew, seemed better before the battle began.

Breaks started through five innings for Safeways, scoring one run and one hit. Morgan replaced Lupul, yielding nothing in his short career on the mound. Lupul, replacing Lupul, allowed only one run and three hits.

For the hard-hitting champion, result emerged as the Hercules Samuels, scoring four runs, four hits, and four errors. In all Safeways got 12 hits, while Arrows only connected for three.
